Some days ago we consulted the facts and a judgment had been rendered in favor of G. Berry for delinquent taxes. Now as the said Berry has never paid any taxes and stated that he never would pay any, in the light of all this, we think it is the duty of City Attorney Swett to have an injunction issued and levy upon some of the gentleman's property. We feel sure that he would do so. It will be some punishment when he is turned a cold.

For the information of the public, I am sorry to say that the sheriff has not yet taken the necessary steps to meet his difficulties and you may depend on receiving his usual treatment.
